The 1994 tour group gathers in front of the historic Kam Wah Chung & Co. in John Day, OR.

Explore the uncovered heritage of early Chinese American pioneers – how they lived, worked, socialized, built communities and settled the American West – on this 7- day tour. Our tour starts in Seattle, traveling by bus through historic sites and archaeology digs in Oregon, Idaho and Nevada. Space is limited. Registration materials for the tour will be available starting March 6. For more info contact: (206) 623-5124 x133.

Special Presentation:

Saturday, March 6, 2010, 1:30 – 2:30 p.m.

Learn more about the historic sites settled by Chinese American pioneers in the American West and now preserved on public lands by the US Forest Service in this special presentation and question/answer session with US Forest Service experts Dale Hom and Fred Frampton. Information about the Chinese Heritage Tour of the American West also will be shared with registration materials available. Held in the Wing Luke Asian Museum Tateuchi Story Theatre, this program is free to the public.

On your visit, be sure to take a tour of our Historic 100-year-old Hotel built by the Seattle Chinese American community and including the historic import-export store, the Yick Fung Company. Museum admission includes an all-day pass to gallery exhibitions and guided tour of the historic Chinatown hotel. Fee: adult $12.95 | senior $9.95 | student (with student ID) $9.95 | youth (age 5-12) $8.95.
